Terms and conditions

Macquarie agrees to allow the Company to access and use Macquarie Online pursuant to the terms and conditions below. By completing this form, the Company accepts, on its own behalf and on behalf of its Representatives, the terms and conditions set out below. Capitalised terms are defined at the end of this document.

Use of Macquarie Online

General

1. The Company wishes to be registered for the purpose of using Macquarie Online.
 2. Where the Company holds an AFSL, or it is an authorised representative of an AFSL holder, the Company warrants that its AFSL or authorised representative appointment (as applicable) authorises it to provide the applicable financial services related to the dealing in or advising on the Macquarie Products.
 3. Where the Company does not hold an AFSL, or it is not an authorised representative of an AFSL holder, it warrants that none of its services or activities constitute the provision of financial product advice, dealing or any other financial service requiring it to hold an AFSL or be appointed as an authorised representative of an AFSL holder.
 4. On acceptance of this completed form, Macquarie agrees to register the Company for Macquarie Online for the Macquarie Products specified on Page 2 of this Registration Form. The Company's right to use Macquarie Online is personal to the Company, and cannot be assigned or transferred without Macquarie's written consent.
 5. The Company and each of its Representatives (including employees and support staff) is taken to accept these terms and conditions each time they access Macquarie Online.
 6. Macquarie agrees to operate Macquarie Online in accordance with Applicable Laws.
 7. The Company acknowledges that it is not, except to the extent expressly agreed in writing, acting as Macquarie's agent, and agrees that it must not hold itself out as Macquarie's agent.
 8. Macquarie is not responsible for the actions of the Company acting either within or outside of its legal authority.
 9. The Company acknowledges that it must not transfer funds from a Client account into an account held in the name of any individual Representative(s).
 10. Macquarie may where reasonable withhold moneys payable to the Representative for any reason including, but not limited to:
 - A. activities of the Representative that result in a breach of these Terms and Conditions, any Applicable Laws, industry codes or Macquarie company policies, or
 - B. the purposes of Macquarie's compliance with any Applicable Laws, industry codes or Macquarie company policies.
- D. comply with any security instructions issued by Macquarie in relation to the Macquarie IDs
 - E. not interfere with or damage (or attempt to interfere with or damage) any code, data or software associated with Macquarie Online
 - F. comply with its obligations under the Privacy Act 1988 with regard to any information or Client data or other data stored on or obtained via Macquarie Online
 - G. not do anything with the personal information that will cause Macquarie to breach its obligations under the Privacy Act 1988
 - H. restrict access to Macquarie Online to those Representatives for whom access is reasonably necessary to perform your duties to Clients
 - I. immediately notify Macquarie if:
 - any Representative to whom the Company or Macquarie has issued a Macquarie ID ceases to be a Representative of the Company, in which case the Macquarie ID for that Representative will be delinked from information and accounts associated with the Company, or
 - the Company suspects:
 - i. a breach or misuse of any Macquarie IDs
 - ii. any unauthorised access to Client data whether held physically or via Company systems
 - iii. the compromising of any Company system or process (including by spyware or malware), or
 - iv. the breach of any of these conditions by the Company or its Representatives.
 - J. unless Macquarie receives prior notice to the contrary, Macquarie will be entitled to:
 - rely on any instructions it receives through Macquarie Online via the Macquarie IDs issued to the Company or its Representatives
 - assume that for any transaction effected via Macquarie Online, the Company or Representative has the appropriate authority
 - K. not copy, assign, pass off the Macquarie Online services as those of the Company, seek to reverse engineer the Macquarie Online services or otherwise infringe upon the intellectual property rights of Macquarie.
2. The Company acknowledges that Macquarie may, in its discretion, but subject to providing reasonable notice, conduct an audit of the Company's systems and controls relating to the security of Client data and/or require that the Company facilitate an independent review of security measures in place.
 3. Macquarie may suspend or close accounts or impose additional data security requirements on the Company, or terminate the relationship with the Company where Macquarie believes that there has been unauthorised access to Client data.
 4. The Company warrants that it has adequate compliance systems, and must, on request provide Macquarie with certification to that effect.

Security and privacy

1. On behalf of itself and its Representatives, the Company must:
 - A. if and to the extent applicable comply with Applicable Laws in relation to any dealing in or advising on the Macquarie Products
 - B. only use Macquarie Online for proper purposes associated with Clients and only to the extent permitted by their unrevoked authority
 - C. keep secure any Macquarie IDs and Client information by employing appropriate physical security measures and by using appropriate technology security systems (eg fire walls and antivirus, anti-spyware software)

Availability

Macquarie will use reasonable efforts to provide (but does not warrant that it will provide):

1. access to Macquarie Online at all reasonable times, and
2. reliable data and information, to the extent that it is within its reasonable control. Macquarie takes no responsibility for the reliability of information outside its control.

Responsibility

The Company accepts full responsibility for any expense, loss or liability (howsoever characterised or caused) incurred by

Macquarie, the Company or a Client as a result of the misuse of Macquarie Online by the Company or its Representative(s) (both current and former), and for any breach of these terms, including any failure to immediately notify Macquarie of any breach in relation to data security or privacy.

Exclusions

Subject to conditions and warranties implied by legislation, Macquarie excludes:

1. liability for any delay, interruption or unavailability of Macquarie Online and for any inaccuracy or incompleteness of data provided by any person and available on Macquarie Online, and
2. all terms implied by statute, general law or custom except ones that may not be excluded. If Macquarie breaches any condition or warranty implied by legislation into a contract with a consumer, Macquarie limits its liability for that breach to a resupply of the goods or services in respect of which the breach occurred. For the avoidance of doubt, Macquarie excludes any liability whatsoever for consequential or indirect losses, including where such losses arise as a consequence of suspension or revocation of access to Macquarie Online by Macquarie.

Notice of changes to these terms and conditions

Macquarie reserves the right to change any of these terms or conditions at any time by updating the terms and conditions on its website. Macquarie will use reasonable endeavours to notify you of important changes and when they come into effect.

Fees

1. Where a Macquarie product or service involves the making of payments such as Adviser Service fees:
 - A. payments will be paid to the Company on terms specified in the offer documents and guides published by Macquarie, the agreement between the Client and their Representative, or special terms agreed with the Company in writing
 - B. such payments will be paid to the bank account nominated by the Company
 - C. Macquarie is not responsible for allocation of payments to the Company's Representatives, such obligation remains the responsibility of the Company
 - D. Macquarie reserves the right to offset payments earned against any other amounts owed to Macquarie by the Company, and
 - E. Macquarie reserves the right to cease making such payments if and where such payment is in breach of the Terms and Conditions or Applicable Laws.
2. Where a payment is made, the Company acknowledges that:
 - A. the Company has not knowingly acted in breach of the Terms and Conditions or the Applicable Laws
 - B. the Company has not acted outside its legal authority
 - C. changes to the nominated account details can only be made in writing by two directors, sole director or director and secretary
 - D. it may take up to two days from the date of payment for the transfer to reach the nominated account. It is possible that delays may occur which are beyond the control of Macquarie
 - E. should a payment be returned to Macquarie from the Company's financial institution, Macquarie will contact the Company to make further arrangements
 - F. Macquarie will endeavour to make the payments, but accepts no responsibility for making them. Macquarie will not incur any liability for refusing or omitting to make all or any of the payments or for late payment or for failing to follow Company instructions.

- G. Macquarie may terminate this authority as to future payments, at any time by notice in writing to the Company,
- H. this authority will remain in effect for Macquarie's protection for payments made in good faith, regardless of my/our death, bankruptcy or liquidation until Macquarie is notified in writing of any of those events or revocation of this authority.

Termination

The Company's registration, continues until the first to occur of:

1. Macquarie revokes the Company's access to the Macquarie Online, which it may do at any time, for any reason (including for the avoidance of doubt, where Macquarie reasonably believes that the Company's security systems are inadequate, where the relationship between the parties is no longer commercial or where the Company has otherwise breached these terms)
2. Macquarie receiving notice to the effect that the Company no longer requires registration for Macquarie Online, or
3. in the event that the Company's Australian Financial Services Licence is revoked or cancelled. For the avoidance of doubt, Macquarie may also suspend or revoke the access of one or more Representatives of the Company.

Wholesale dealers

If your AFSL licence only permits you to provide services to "wholesale clients" (as that term is defined in the Corporations Act 2001), by signing this form you attest that:

1. you will provide financial services only to "wholesale clients" in accordance with your Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL) conditions
2. you will not permit the onboarding or arrange for the acquisition or dealing in MBL's cash products and products available on the Macquarie Wrap Platform under your AFSL for clients other than "wholesale clients"
3. you will notify MBL and MIML prior to opening a cash account and/or an account on the Macquarie Wrap Platform on behalf of any client that is not a wholesale client, and
4. you are not aware of any breaches of your AFSL conditions and will notify Macquarie if you become aware of any breaches of your AFSL conditions.

Recipient created tax invoices

1. This recipient created tax invoice agreement applies to all supplies made by the Company to Macquarie in relation to Macquarie Products ('Affected Supplies') for which the consideration is adviser service fees or other payments as set out in the applicable guide or offer document. The Company agrees that Macquarie will issue tax invoices in respect of Affected Supplies made by the Company to Macquarie and that the Company will not issue tax invoices in respect of the Affected Supplies.
2. The Company acknowledges that:
 - A. it is registered for GST when it enters into this agreement, and
 - B. it will notify Macquarie promptly if it ceases to be registered for GST.
3. Macquarie acknowledges that:
 - A. it is registered for GST when entering this agreement
 - B. it will notify the Company promptly if Macquarie ceases to be registered for GST or ceases to satisfy any of the requirements which must be satisfied in order for Macquarie to be entitled to issue recipient created tax invoices, and

- C. it will not issue a document that would otherwise be a recipient created tax invoice on or after the date when either Macquarie or the Company fail to satisfy any of the requirements which must be satisfied in order for Macquarie to be entitled to issue recipient created tax invoices.

Tax invoices

Unless the Company notifies Macquarie otherwise:

1. where a Representative acting on your behalf elects to have fees paid directly to its bank account, building society or credit union Macquarie will prepare a tax invoice on behalf of the Representative for provision to the Company in respect of the supplies to which the fees relate
2. Macquarie will prepare tax invoices on the Company's behalf in respect of supplies by the Company to Clients for provision by the Company to Clients.

Macquarie IDs

On acceptance of this registration form, Macquarie will set up the Company with access to Macquarie Online, and the Company Representative(s) appointed will be issued with Macquarie ID(s). On completion and acceptance of the Macquarie registration form – Representative, Macquarie IDs will be issued to those Representatives. Macquarie IDs are personal to the person set out on the Macquarie registration form – Representative, and must not be shared or transferred.

Where a Company informs Macquarie that a Representative is leaving the Company, Macquarie will ensure the Macquarie ID registered to that Representative is no longer linked to information or accounts associated with the Company. Once Macquarie is informed that the Representative has joined a new Company, that Representative's Macquarie ID will be linked to information and accounts associated with that new Company if that new Company is already registered with Macquarie.

Intellectual property

1. Anything associated with or available through Macquarie Online belongs to Macquarie or other third persons and is protected by intellectual property rights. The Company agrees (on its own behalf and on behalf of its Representatives) not to access, download or otherwise use such property other than as expressly permitted by these conditions, and will be responsible, and indemnify Macquarie accordingly, for any unauthorised use of such property.
2. The Company may not use Macquarie's name or logo for marketing purposes without Macquarie's express written consent.

Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing

The Company must (on its own behalf and on behalf of its Representatives):

1. not knowingly do anything to put Macquarie in breach of the Anti- Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006, rules and other subordinate instruments (AML/CTL Laws)
2. notify Macquarie if it becomes aware of anything that would put Macquarie in breach of AML/CTF Laws
3. if requested provide additional information and assistance and comply with all reasonable requests to facilitate Macquarie's compliance.
4. For the purposes of paragraph 38(e) of the AML/CTF Act, the Company acknowledges that Macquarie relies on the applicable customer identification procedures (as prescribed by the AML/CTF Rules) carried out by the Company, and the Company warrants that:
 - A. it is a reporting entity as that term is defined in the AML/CTF Act and has measures in place to comply with their obligations under parts 2 and 10 of the AML/CTF Act; and

- B. all relevant documents, data and information obtained by the Company in the course of carrying out applicable customer identification procedures or the other procedures relating to the identity of a customer, including any verification information relating to the identity of customer, the beneficial owner of a customer, or a person acting on behalf of the customer, will be made available to Macquarie as soon as practicable following receipt by the Company of a written request from Macquarie but in any event within 7 calendar days of the request being received.

Use of technology

By accessing Macquarie Online via your mobile device, you do so on the following additional terms of use:

1. not all the functionality of the main Macquarie Access site is available in the mobile device version of that site (the Mobile Site)
2. not all mobile devices operate in the same manner, and accordingly, some of the functionality included in the Mobile Site may not be available on your mobile device
3. we do not charge you for use of the Mobile Site, but you remain responsible for any data charges which you incur from your mobile device provider or internet service provider through which you access the Mobile Site
4. the Mobile Site optionally includes a feature which recalls your Macquarie ID, but not your password. For security reasons the first four characters of your Macquarie ID will be masked from view
5. you may be able to access product or service specific sites through the Mobile Site. If so, those sites might have their own operating terms or conditions of use
6. via links on each page of the Mobile Site you can access other important information relevant to the Mobile Site
7. from time to time we will update these terms of use. Where we do so we will endeavour to make these changes obvious to you and we will ask you to acknowledge your acceptance of them by using and continuing to use the Mobile Site you acknowledge and accept these:
 - A. terms of use, and
 - B. the Important Information – which includes our Privacy Policy, Fraudulent Email Statement and other important technical information as amended from time to time.

Macquarie Wrap

Dealer/Company access

Company access provides limited access to the online environment. It allows the user to run reports at a Company level, perform inquiries and set up pre-set portfolios but does not permit any on-market orders (eg listed securities and wholesale managed investments) to be entered.

General

The Representative acknowledges that the Company must undertake the following administrative and investment portfolio management services:

- A. promptly and properly act on Client's instructions relating to their portfolio
- B. act only on proper instructions from the Client
- C. keep Client's details up to date and keep records of dealings on portfolios in accordance with Applicable Laws
- D. comply with reasonable requests by Macquarie to inspect or review such records on reasonable notice at a reasonable time
- E. monitor Client Cash Account holdings and contact Clients promptly if their Cash Account falls below the minimum balance

- F. monitor, develop and regularly assist Clients in relation to their investment strategies
- G. inform Clients of the potential risks and returns involved with their investment decisions
- H. agree with the Client appropriate frequency and (to the extent that reports can be tailored) content of portfolio reports
- I. act promptly on corporate action notifications and reports as notified by Macquarie
- J. ensure that, to the extent possible, all information which is provided to Macquarie relating to Client portfolios (eg cost base information on securities transferred into a portfolio) is accurate and not misleading or deceptive
- K. provide Clients with the most up to date offer document or Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) available for the underlying investments, prior to the Clients' investment decision
- L. inform Clients that the proceeds from any future redemptions or managed investments will not be available for withdrawal or further investments until settlement has occurred and the proceeds are cleared in the Cash Account
- M. inform them that managed investment redemption times may vary throughout the year and are subject to the conditions and variations contained in the relevant PDS
- N. where recommendations are made to Clients that they acquire any underlying investments for their superannuation that are "illiquid investments" under superannuation laws, it is explained to Clients with reference to the relevant disclosure documentation:
 - i. the reasons why certain "illiquid investments" are not able to be redeemed within 30 days
 - ii. the impact on the superannuation fund not being able to pay out (lump sum or rollover) from these investments within 30 days
 - iii. the maximum redemption periods which may apply to those types of investments
- O. written confirmation from Clients that they understand the above implications, will be obtained by the Company,
- P. be aware of the trustee limits for Macquarie Wrap superannuation products and use best endeavours to ensure Client account transactions are made within those limits.

Stockbroking terms and conditions

The Representative acknowledges that the:

- A. Macquarie Investment Manager and Macquarie Investment Consolidator
 - must only transact with brokers who have been nominated by your Clients.
- B. Macquarie Super and Pension Manager and Macquarie Super and Pension Consolidator
 - must only transact with brokers who have been nominated by Clients to act as an agent of MIML
 - will only be able to give transaction instructions on your Clients' accounts as an agent of the fund trustee, MIML, and that the Company's authority to act as MIML's agent is limited to giving instructions to Macquarie Equities Limited (or such other broker that MIML appoints from time to time) to conduct buy and sell transactions in Australian listed securities on your Macquarie Wrap accounts and does not extend to include authority to give instructions to withdraw benefits from your Clients' accounts. Australian listed securities are listed securities that can be transacted on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX), Cboe Australia or such other exchanges as are approved from time to time.

Privacy

Unless we are informed by you to the contrary, to facilitate Product Issuers of financial products including fund managers, term deposit issuers and margin lenders doing business with you, Macquarie may pass on your information and contact details to these Product Issuers including, if relevant, the fund managers of funds featured within the Macquarie Separately Managed Account, as well as lenders.

Recipient created tax invoices

1. This recipient created tax invoice agreement applies to all supplies made by the Company to Macquarie in relation to Macquarie Products ('Affected Supplies') for which the consideration is adviser service fees or other payments as set out in the applicable guide or offer document. The Company agrees that Macquarie will issue tax invoices in respect of Affected Supplies made by the Company to Macquarie and that the Company will not issue tax invoices in respect of the Affected Supplies.
2. The Company acknowledges that:
 - A. it is registered for GST when it enters into this agreement, and
 - B. it will notify Macquarie promptly if it ceases to be registered for GST.
3. Macquarie acknowledges that:
 - A. it is registered for GST when entering this agreement
 - B. it will notify the Company promptly if Macquarie ceases to be registered for GST or ceases to satisfy any of the requirements which must be satisfied in order for Macquarie to be entitled to issue recipient created tax invoices, and
 - C. it will not issue a document that would otherwise be a recipient created tax invoice on or after the date when either Macquarie or the Company fail to satisfy any of the requirements which must be satisfied in order for Macquarie to be entitled to issue recipient created tax invoices.
