Tax Residency rules differ by country. Whether an individual is tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on the amount of time a person spends in a country, the location of a person's residence or place of work. For the US, tax residency can be as a result of citizenship or residency. Beneficial Owner 1 Beneficial Owner 2 Beneficial Owner 3 Full given name(s) Full given name(s) Full given name(s) Surname Surname Surname (eg Director or Senior Managing Official) (eg Director or Senior Managing Official) (eg Director or Senior Managing Official) Please cross this box if there are more Beneficial Owners and provide details on a separate sheet. ▶ go to section 2.3 (Country of Tax Residency) 2.3 Country of tax residency Is the Company a tax resident of a country other than Australia? No ▶ go to section 3 to complete the form Yes, please provide the Company's country of tax residence and tax identification number (TIN) or equivalent below. If the Company is a tax resident of more than one other country, please list all relevant countries below. A TIN is the number assigned by each country for the purposes of administering tax laws. This is the equivalent of a Tax File Number in Australia or an Employer Identification Number in the US. If a TIN is not provided, please list one of the three reasons specified (A, B or C) for not providing a TIN. Please note a US TIN must be provided if the entity is a US Specified Person. This is a mandatory requirement and a TIN exemption reason will no longer be accepted. The account cannot be opened without a US TIN. Country 1 Country 2 Country 3 Country Country Country

Certification of identification documents

Please cross this box if there are more countries, provide details on a separate sheet.

Reason A: The country of tax residency does not issue TINs to tax residents

Reason C: The country of tax residency does not require the TIN to be disclosed

Reason B: The Company has not been issued with a TIN

In order for documents to meet the certification requirements, the document must clearly be certified as a true copy of the original by an appropriate person. Each certified copy document must be certified separately and must show clearly:

TIN (if no TIN, list reason A, B or C)

- the date of Certification is to be no more than 12 months old at the time of acceptance by Macquarie,
- written or stamped 'certified true copy',

TIN (if no TIN, list reason A, B or C)

- the wet ink signature of the certifying officer, the full name, provider/registration number (if applicable), and
- profession/qualification of the certifying officer and years of service (if applicable), legibly printed below the signature.

Certification is only required on the first page of the document. The certifier needs to sight all pages of the document in order to ensure that they have reviewed the whole document.

Persons who can certify documents include:

- · Justice of the Peace
- · Notary public
- · a police officer
- a permanent employee of the Australian Postal Corporation with two or more years of continuous service who is employed in an office supplying postal services to the public
- an officer with, or authorised representative of, a holder of an Australian financial services licence, having two or more years of continuous service with one or more financial institutions.
