Guarantor packs

IMPORTANT: please complete this part if you're a director guarantor of the borrower.

Guarantor packs contain important information about the borrower that may affect a guarantor's decision to give a guarantee. They include information about the proposed loan facilities, securities, credit reports, financial accounts, tax returns, payslips, statements, and default information for any loan the borrower has with us. A guarantor who is the sole director of the borrower will not receive a guarantor pack but all other director guarantors can choose to receive a guarantor pack.

Would you like to receive the information pack about the company borrower(s)?

Yes

Note: ALL non-director guarantors will automatically receive a guarantor pack as part of their loan documentation.

Once the borrower has consented to you receiving the information pack, we'll send it to your email address - please contact us if you'd like to receive this information via an alternative method.

Privacy consents and disclosure

You consent and agree to the Bank collecting, using, holding, and disclosing your personal information and credit information, and exchanging it with the Bank's Agents and the parties detailed below, now or in the future, within or outside Australia, for the following purposes:

- Seeking and using consumer and commercial credit information about yourself.
This includes credit information and information derived from credit reporting bodies (CRBs) to:
  - assess an application by you for consumer or commercial credit;
  - manage your loan and related arrangements, and assess applications for financial assistance;

Your rights

You may request access to and correction of the personal information the Bank holds about you. You may also request a copy of the Bank's and Bank's Agents' privacy policies and (where applicable) credit reporting policies. These policies contain further details about handling of personal and credit information including how you can access or update that information, how privacy concerns are dealt with, website privacy information, which CRBs are used and how you can request copies of information from those CRBs or limit the disclosure of credit information. The Bank's Privacy Policy and Credit Information Policy can be found via macquarie.com.au/business-banking, or by contacting the Macquarie Privacy Officer on 1800 806 310 or privacy@macquarie.com.

Your acknowledgements

You acknowledge that:

- Information collection — the Bank collects personal information through interactions with you and your nominated adviser/s or broker (including telephone, email or online), as well as the Bank's Agents, public sources and third parties including information brokers. Without this information, the Bank may not be able to process your application or provide you with an appropriate level of service and in some cases, you may not be able to make withdrawals from your loan account.
- Compliance — the Bank collects and may disclose your personal information under various laws including the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act; National Consumer Credit Protection Act; the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act; the Personal Property Securities Act and certain state property laws. The Bank may also disclose personal information to regulatory authorities in Australia and overseas in connection with their lawful requests.
- Sensitive information — the Bank collects sensitive information for specific purposes, such as information regarding your health, to enable the assessment of a financial assistance application. The Bank may use and disclose such information for those purposes and seek such information from your health providers.
- Third-party consent — the Bank relies on you to ensure that, before you give any personal information about someone else to the Bank, that person has consented to you providing their information to the Bank based on this privacy consent.
- Service providers and the Bank's Agents — the Bank may exchange your personal information with its related companies, other funders and service providers that assist in the management of your credit. The third parties with which the Bank may exchange your personal information may operate outside Australia including locations in the Philippines, India and the countries specified in the Bank's Privacy Policy. Where this occurs, the Bank takes steps to protect information against misuse or loss.
- Marketing — the Bank and its related companies may use your personal information to contact you on an ongoing basis by telephone, email, online and other means to offer products or services that may be of interest, unless you change your marketing preferences by telephoning the Bank on 1800 806 310 or visiting www.macquarie.com.au/optout-bfs.

Definitions Used

Bank's Agents refers to each of the Bank's agents, introducers, dealers, brokers, service providers and any other financier who at any time provides or has any interest in the credit provided to or guaranteed by you, including other entities involved in any securitisation of that credit.

Credit Information refers to permitted identification information; credit applications and the amount and type of credit; the Bank being a current credit provider; the credit limit and loan start/end dates; repayment history information, including default information (such as payments overdue for more than 60 days in specified circumstances); advice about new payment arrangements or where payments are no longer overdue; in specified circumstances that in the opinion of the Bank there has been a serious credit infringement such as fraud; and other credit-related personal information that is described in the Bank's Credit Information Policy or can otherwise be disclosed under the Privacy Act. In respect of information provided to guarantors, this also includes upfront, ongoing, and historical information about your financial position, credit reports, financial accounts, tax returns, payslips, statements and default information for any loan you have with the Bank.

Privacy Act means the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).
