

Partnership borrower consent

Macquarie Bank Limited ABN 46 008 583 542 AFSL and Australian Credit Licence 237502

By signing this form, on behalf of the partnership you consent to Macquarie Bank Limited and its related companies (we, us, our) providing certain information to guarantors. You also consent to receiving documents and information electronically.

A Consent to provide information to guarantors

We may provide guarantors with upfront, ongoing and historical information about the partnership and relevant entities within your borrowing group, for the current and any future loans from us. This includes detailed information about the proposed loan facilities, securities, the partnership's financial position, credit reports, financial accounts, tax returns, statements and default information for any loan the partnership has with us or a related entity.

Where your loan relates to acquisition of a business, this consent extends to providing information about the target to guarantors. You warrant that you have the target's consent for us to share such information with guarantors.

We're not responsible for anything that the guarantor does with any information we provide them.

B We'll send you documents electronically

On behalf of the partnership, you consent to receiving electronic copies of loan, guarantee, security documents and any other related documents and correspondence. Instructions for receiving these documents will be sent to the email address you provide below.

By giving this consent, you acknowledge:

- paper documents may no longer be given

- your email and/or online portal must be checked regularly for documents
- your consent may be withdrawn at any time

If you don't want to receive documents electronically, please let us know and we'll discuss alternative options. Despite your consent to receive electronic copies, we reserve the right to send physical documents.

C Acceptance and consent

By signing below, the partnership accepts the above provisions and consents to Macquarie Bank Limited and its related companies disclosing information to guarantors (prospective, or during the term of the loan). The partner signing below represents and confirms they're duly authorised to provide this consent on behalf of the partnership and any associated entities, and they're not aware of anything which may limit or revoke this authority.
