Tax Residency rules differ by country. Whether an individual is tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on the amount of time a person spends in a country, the location of a person's residence or place of work. For the US, tax residency can be as a result of citizenship or residency.

Please answer both tax residency questions:

Are you an Australian resident for tax purposes?

Yes No

Are you a resident of another country for tax purposes?

No ► go to section 10

Yes. If the individual is a tax resident of a country other than Australia, please provide their tax identification number (TIN) or equivalent below. If they are a tax resident of more than one other country, please list all relevant countries below.

A TIN is the number assigned by each country for the purposes of administering tax laws. This is the equivalent of a Tax File Number in Australia or a Social Security Number in the US. If a TIN is not provided, please list one of the three reasons specified (A, B or C) for not providing a TIN.

Yes, please provide the Registered Co-operative's country of tax residence and tax identification number (TIN) or equivalent below. If the Registered Co-operative is a tax resident of more than one other country, please list all relevant countries below.

A TIN is the number assigned by each country for the purposes of administering tax laws. This is the equivalent of a Tax File Number in Australia or an Employee Identification Number in the US. If a TIN is not provided, please list one of the three reasons specified (A, B or C) for not providing a TIN.

Country 1	Country 2	Country 3

TIN (if no TIN, list reason A, B or C) <input type="text"/>	TIN (if no TIN, list reason A, B or C) <input type="text"/>	TIN (if no TIN, list reason A, B or C) <input type="text"/>

Reason A: The country of tax residency does not issue TINs to tax residents

Reason B: The Registered Co-operative has not been issued with a TIN

Reason C: The country of tax residency does not require the TIN to be disclosed

Please cross this box if there are more countries, provide details on a separate sheet.
