Tax Information

Tax Residency rules differ by country. Whether an individual is a tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on the amount of time a person spends in a country, the location of a person's residence or place of work. For the US, tax residency can be as a result of citizenship or residency.

Please answer both tax residency questions:

Are you an Australian resident for tax purposes?

- Yes
 No

Are you a resident of another country for tax purposes?

- No ► go to section 3
 Yes. If the individual is a tax resident of a country other than Australia, please provide their tax identification number (TIN) or equivalent below.
If they are a tax resident of more than one other country, please list all relevant countries below.

A TIN is the number assigned by each country for the purposes of administering tax laws. This is the equivalent of a Tax File Number in Australia. If a TIN is not provided, please list one of the three reasons specified (A, B or C) for not providing a TIN.

PLEASE NOTE: Effective 1 January 2021, a US TIN must be provided if you are a US Specified Person. This is a mandatory requirement and a TIN exemption reason will no longer be accepted. The account cannot be opened without a US TIN.

Reason A: The country of tax residency does not issue TINs to tax residents

Reason B: The individual has not been issued with a TIN

Reason C: The country of tax residency does not require the TIN to be disclosed

Please cross this box if there are more countries, provide details on a separate sheet.
